

Their Faith, Our Lesson

A Visit to Anmol Zindagi Old Age Home

Ethics and Social Responsibility
Group Project Presentation

Project Overview

Purpose

To serve elderly residents with dignity, companionship, and genuine human connection through breakfast service and meaningful conversations.

Key Idea

Social responsibility is not only about giving resources. Sometimes giving time, attention, and respect creates the greatest impact.

Proposal Highlights

- Personally prepare and serve breakfast
- Spend quality time with residents
- Listen to life stories and experiences
- Document the visit for awareness
- Build empathy, humility, and patience

Estimated Budget

Bakery Breakfast: Rs. 2,090

Chai: Rs. 1,750

Total: Rs. 3,840

Activities Conducted

1. Arrived at Anmol Zindagi Old Age Home
2. Prepared breakfast plates
3. Served residents personally
4. Sat with residents and listened to their stories
5. Shared conversations and reflections
6. Documented the experience through photos and videos

Memorable Experience

A resident facing severe health challenges spoke with gratitude instead of complaint. Despite memory difficulties, he accurately recited Surah Al-Fatiha and the Four Quls from memory. This moment highlighted faith, resilience, and the lasting strength of spiritual values.

Lessons Learned

- Time and attention can be more valuable than material support
- Patience and active listening are powerful forms of care
- Sincerity matters more than the size of an action
- Elderly people need respect, inclusion, and companionship
- Ethical responsibility begins with everyday choices toward our elders

Impact & Sustainable Development Goals

SDG 3: Good Health and Well-Being

Supported emotional and psychological well-being of elderly residents.

SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities

Reduced feelings of social isolation through engagement.

SDG 11: Sustainable Cities and Communities

Promoted inclusion and care for vulnerable community members.

Conclusion

The project demonstrated that meaningful social responsibility is built on empathy, respect, and human connection. The visit reminded us that caring for elders is not only a social duty but also a moral responsibility. Even a few hours of genuine conversation can leave a lasting impact on both those who receive and those who serve.
